that orders were issued in October 1939 directing that cases which involved loss of Government money or revenue should be thoroughly investigated in order that it might be possible to fix responsibility and recoup the loss, and that Government servants were at the same time warned that, wherever it was found that loss of Government money or revenue had been occasioned by the negligence of a Government servant, he would be liable to make it good. We recommend that these orders be brought again to the notice of Government servants."

Government directed that the following orders issued in the Government Resolution, Finance Department, No. 1347/33, dated the 7th October 1939, should be enforced very strictly.

Government is pleased to direct that cases involving loss of Government money or revenue should be thoroughly investigated in order that it may be possible to decide whether the loss should be recouped from the Government servants responsible for it.

2. All Government servants should be warned that wherever it is found that loss of Government money or revenue was occasioned by the negligence of a Government servant he will be liable to make it good.

13. GENERAL ACCOUNT QUESTIONS AND TREASURY PROCEDURE.

G. R. No. 1468, dated 14th June 1947.

Provincial Schemes connected with War recorded under "85-A, Capital Outlay on Provincial Schemes connected with the War, 1939":

Charging of interest on the capital outlay advanced for,— Government decided to continue one per cent. per annum as the rate of interest for the year 1947-48 on the capital outlay on the various schemes (except the "Grow More Food Scheme" in which case advances are given free of interest) included under "85-A, Capital Outlay on Provincial Schemes of State Trading".

G. R. No. 6950/33, dated 18th March 1948.

Advance:

Grant of — to Provincial Government servants from West Pakistan employed under the Government of Bombay.

Government directed that interest-free advances equal to three months' pay or Rs. 2,500, whichever is less, might be granted to the Provincial Government servants who came as refugees from areas in West Pakistan and subsequently employed under the Government of Bombay, to enable them to provide themselves with personal equipment essential for their duties as Government servants. The advances were interest-free and recoverable in not more than 36 monthly instalments beginning with the
